

Whistleblower Complaint

“In the course of my official duties, I have received information from multiple U.S. Government officials that the President of the United States is using the power of his office to solicit interference from a foreign country in the 2020 U.S. election”

Chairman Schiff sets forth the parameters of the hearings

1. Did the President request that a foreign leader and government initiate investigations to benefit the President’s personal political interests in the United States, including an investigation related to the President’s political rival and potential opponent in the 2020 U.S. presidential election?
2. Did the President—directly or through agents—seek to use the power of the Office of the President and other instruments of the federal government in other ways to apply pressure on the head of state and government of Ukraine to advance the President’s personal political interests, including by leveraging an Oval Office meeting desired by the President of Ukraine or by withholding U.S. military assistance to Ukraine?
3. Did the President and his Administration seek to obstruct, suppress or cover up information to conceal from the Congress and the American people evidence about the President’s actions and conduct?

Headlines from Public Hearings

Marie L. Yovanovitch
Former U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine

“At the second public impeachment hearing, former U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine Marie Yovanovitch said a smear campaign waged by foreign corrupt interests led to her early ouster.” – CBSNews

George Kent
Deputy Assistant Secretary of State

“Mr. Kent said that efforts to gin up politically motivated investigations were infecting United States policy toward Ukraine.” – New York Times

Bill Taylor
Chargé d'affaires for Ukraine
Testimony date: October 22nd

“Taylor testified that the harm of withholding aid to Ukraine is that it sends a signal to Russia — which is currently waging a war in eastern Ukraine — of weakened U.S. support.” – Axios

Jennifer Williams
An aide to Vice President Mike Pence

“Jennifer Williams testified during Tuesday’s impeachment hearing that the allegations claiming that the Biden family engaged in improper business dealings in Ukraine lack credible evidence.” – Axios

Gordon Sondland
U.S. Ambassador to the European Union

“Sondland testified that there was indeed a “quid pro quo” involved in Ukraine policy: Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky would not get the coveted White House visit he was promised unless he announced investigations into a Ukrainian energy company for which former Vice President Joe Biden’s son served as a director and into a conspiracy theory that Ukraine, not Russia, interfered in the 2016 U.S. election.” – Los Angeles Times

Fiona Hill
Former National Security Council Senior Director for Europe and Russia

“Hill rebutted the Republican theory that Ukraine meddled in the 2016 U.S. election and answered questions about the pressure campaign President Donald Trump is accused of levying against the nation.” – USA Today

Lt. Col. Alexander Vindman
Director for European Affairs at the National Security Council

“Lt. Col. Alexander Vindman testified Tuesday that it was my duty to report Donald Trump’s July 25 call with his Ukrainian counterpart to a White House lawyer — a call he’s characterized as improper.” – Politico

Kurt Volker
The Former U.S. Special Envoy to Ukraine

“Kurt Volker said Tuesday he failed to realize that an investigation into the Ukrainian energy company Burisma Holdings was linked to a probe of President Donald Trump’s political rival, former Vice President Joe Biden, which Volker now says was unacceptable.” – CNN

Laura Cooper
The Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Eurasian Affairs

“Laura Cooper said that as early as July 25 — the same day President Donald Trump spoke to Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky — her staffers received two emails indicating the Ukrainians were aware of the hold.” – Politico

David Holmes
Counselor for Political Affairs at the U.S. Embassy in Ukraine

“David Holmes testified that he heard Trump himself asking about investigations on a phone call with U.S. Ambassador to the European Union Gordon Sondland.” – NPR

Timothy Morrison
A White House Aide with the National Security Council Focusing on Europe and Russia Policy

“Morrison recounted his concern with Ambassador Sondland’s conduct with regard to requirements the Ukrainians needed to meet in order to receive the U.S. security aid.” – ABC News

David Hale
The Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs

“Hale confirmed what Trump himself has acknowledged: Office of Management and Budget officials said Trump ordered the hold on the aid.” – MSN

House Intelligence Committee

Adam Schiff
Chair
California

“What we’ve seen here is far more serious than a third-rate burglary of the Democratic headquarters. What we’re talking about here is the withholding of recognition in that White House meeting. The withholding of military aid to an ally at war. That is beyond anything Nixon did.” – Adam Schiff’s closing statement

Devin Nunes
Ranking Member
California

“This farce will soon move to the Judiciary Committee, where impeachment rightfully belongs. I wish my Republican colleagues well and fighting this travesty and defending the idea which at one time received bipartisan support, not long ago — that the American people’s vote actually means something.” – Devin Nunes closing statement
